

CINCO is a Quality Risk Management and Knowledge Management software that helps Life Sciences industries track, manage and archive process and operational risks to product quality and patient safety. CINCO can be used to determine Critical Aspects for Commissioning, Qualification and Validation; and to further develop control strategies during a product's lifecycle. It provides data visualization and reports to support daily decisions and audits from regulatory agencies.

Request a Demo

hello@meetcinco.com

+1 (787) 633-7639

Meet us

www.meetcinco.com

cinco-engineering

/cincoengineering

Software Capabilities

- On-demand access to what is critical to the product quality and patient safety
- Standardized templates, risk assessment tools, and globally proven libraries
- Promote sustainable compliance across your products' lifecycle
- Keep the product's institutional memory at your Site.
- Facilitates training of your manufacturing operations' critical aspects

Our differentiators

- Automate the traceability of critical aspects
- Traces every aspect of your operation to a CQA
- Supports your daily decision-making
- Designed to comply with global regulatory expectations (i.e. FDA, EMA, ANVISA etc)
- Allows users to seamlessly adhere to ICH Q9 methodologies

About us

- American Owned/ Established March 2018 as a Corporation
- Founder Ruben Morales 17 years experience Pharma Industry
- Jon Irizarry over 14 years of experience and International Member of ASTM (E55 Committee)
- 40+ years of combined industry Knowledge and experience
- Accepted to multiple business accelerators in Puerto Rico
- Won the EnterPRize 2018 competition and Paralell 18's Innovation Award 2019

